

Project Data Sheet – Design and Install Sewer Flushing Gates – Lincoln Road, Auckland, New Zealand

Project Overview

Design and install project for sewer hinged sewer flushing gates for the Sewer storage tank in Lincoln Road for Watercare. The flushing system is used to clean the storage facility when required.

Scope of works

Designed and installed to meet the stringent requirements of the project. Installed and commissioned system. Supervised the hydraulic and electrical part of the installation.

Civil Works - Working together with Brian Perry Civil who does the civil and earthworks.

Process

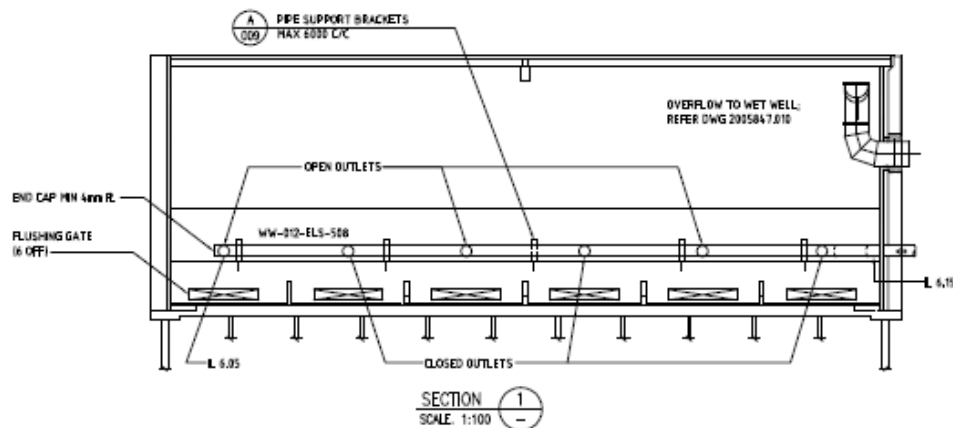

- Design of process and mechanical equipment
- Design of tank level to assure flushing
- Procurement and installation of all items
- Commissioning of System

Control

- Controls design
- MCC

Ongoing - Service, if required

Design and Performance

Continued over the page...

Project Information

Client	Watercare
Project	Design and Installed, Commissioned Flushing Gates
Quality	Executed under ISO9001
H&S	No LTI's or injuries recorded
Timely Completion	Still ongoing
Completed	Expected completion in 2011
Satisfaction	The system performs well.